

Allen Farrar, First Term (2011)
Resident Representative

Leisure World resident Allen Farrar is a veteran of United States Army Air Corps. He retired as Chief Counsel of NIST (formerly known as the National Bureau of Standards) in 1986 after working there for 20 years. Mr. Farrar received his undergraduate degree from Indiana University and his juris doctorate from Cornell University Law School.

In addition to his work on the CCOC, Allen is a member of the Board of Directors of the Fairways North Community Association. Since retiring, Mr. Farrar has been an active volunteer in Montgomery County, providing assistance to the Office of Consumer Protection, the State's Attorney's Office, the Montgomery County Mental Health Hotline and the Service Corps of Retired Executives.